

Summer Monthly Update, 2009

"I have come to recognize that there is not enough time in the day to do everything we'd like to do. We need to keep our perspective about what is truly important. Of course, we don't want the weeds of this world crowding out our commitment to God."

Homeschool Open House; Interviews with 55 Families by Nancy Lande

Dear Families,

I think the quote above, from a homeschooling mom, suits the school year and summertime. I hope you can find a little down time for you and your children. We look forward to seeing you in the fall.

A few summer reminders:

Student Handbook Packets will be emailed in early August. Packets include calendar and dress code information, emergency and supply fee forms. Tuition invoices will be emailed on July 15, 2009.

Tuition payments are due August 1, or August 1 and November 1 depending on the payment plan you chose.

All necessary copies of the student Emergency Form must be on file before classes start the week of September 14. Please mail all of the required emergency form copies with your tuition payment. One for each teacher your child will have and an extra copy for the administrative files.

Café and Play and afternoon classes will start on Wednesday, September 16.

Our 2009-2010 calendar is as follows:

Sept. 14, Monday, Opening day for Monday classes

Sept. 16, Wednesday, Opening day for Wednesday classes and afternoon sessions

Nov. 25, Wednesday, Thanksgiving break, no morning or afternoon classes

Dec. 9, Wednesday, Last morning and afternoon classes, Christmas break

Jan. 4, Monday, Classes resume

Jan. 18, Monday, No class, Martin Luther King, Jr. Day

Feb. 24, Wednesday, No class, Parent Teacher Conferences

April 5, Monday, No class, Easter Monday

April 7, Wednesday, No class, Easter break

April 12, Monday, Classes resume

May 12, Wednesday, Last class

May 17 and 19 Snow make-up days to be used if 3 or more class days are canceled due to inclement weather.

See you soon,
Amy Chauncey