

November Monthly Update 2011

May our Lord Jesus Christ Himself and God our Father, who loved us and by His grace gave us eternal encouragement and good hope, encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good deed and word. 2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

Dear Parents,

Encouragement is a gift when experienced at the needed time. The beauty of creation, the kindness of a friend, or the steadfastness of Scripture can lift our heavy hearts like nothing else. Eternal encouragement and good hope is other worldly and yet ever present as we make our way through our lives in Christ. Deerstream's 14 year old mission statement is twofold: To provide a classroom experience for homeschoolers,...and, to offer parents support and encouragement for their own teaching.

Founders, Jane Adams and Nikki Bojanski, hoped that a classroom experience would encourage both parent and child. That is still our hope today. Has Deerstream been an encouragement to you? How can we encourage and support you in your teaching efforts? Please email us at deerstream@gmail.com if there is something you would like us to know or consider.

Fondly,
Amy Chauncey

November Updates:

Saturday, November 5, Tuition payments due for morning classes.

Monday, November 7, Informal Family Picnic, 12:15-1:15. Call a classroom friend, pack a lunch, pick up your children, and play on the playground.

Wednesday, November 9, Proof pages and order forms from Christine Prisk will be sent home! I have had a sneak preview and they are wonderful.

Wednesday, November 16, Registration for second semester afternoon classes. 9:00-10:00 a.m. in room 112. Class choices, registration forms, etc. will be sent out in another email the week of November 7th.

Wednesday, November 23, NO CLASSES, Thanks giving Break. See you on Monday, Nov. 28.
